“This volume comprises a series of sketches that I created in response to my observations of the holding cells located on Moon Base Alpha. Each doodle serves as a visual representation of my reflections and insights gained from the unique environment and circumstances encountered within that setting.”

“In previous volumes, I have provided a comprehensive account of our harrowing experiences and remarkable adventures at the Tulsa Intergalactic Space Port, particularly during the final stages of the last significant conflict between the Republic of Texas and the otherworldly forces composed of off-world mercenaries, who represented the disorganized remnants of Ahriman’s once-mighty army.”
